Saturday afternoon*, Sunday:	$650 (members) $800 (non-members)
Saturday evening:	$750 (members) $900 (non-members)
After Service Kiddush: (3 hour maximum)	$400 (members) $550 (non-members)

Note: All rates are for up to five hours (not including set-up and clean-up time) except as noted above for the After Service Kiddush. Additional hours will be billed at rate of $100 per hour or for any part of an hour.

*Saturday afternoon affairs must finish before 6:00 p.m.

Included in Banquet Room Rental:

Tables, chairs, flatware, plates and custodian service are included in the above fees.

Not included:

Napkins and linens are not included in the above fees.

Capacity:

The banquet room has a capacity of approximately 140 (with a dance floor) with the lobby wall in place so that the center lobby can be used as a separate cocktail hour space. The banquet room can be opened up as one large space to include the center lobby area in order to accommodate groups of approximately 180 guests (with dance floor).

Caterers:

Only approved caterers are permitted in the Temple. A certificate of insurance must be provided. It is mandatory that professional service staff be contracted to serve the food and clean the banquet room and kitchen. For extended Kiddush events and other small parties, the Temple custodian (Felix) and his wife may be available for food service at $100 per server.

All food must be kosher style: No shellfish, no pork, no meat/cheese combination dishes are permitted.
